Suffield Place

YOUR MOST IMPORTANT CONSIDERATION THE BUILDER OF YOUR NEW HOME:

UNITED DEVELOPMENT

Because you are about to make one of the most important decisions of your life—the purchase of your new home—it is natural that you should want to know more about the company that built it for you.

The homes in Suffield Place are built by United Development. So, to begin with, you are dealing with an established, dependable company, well-known for its impeccable reputation.

United Development has created outstanding residential communities in the Chicago metropolitan area over the past decade—Amberwood, Spring Lake, and The Garden Homes at Spring Lake; New Century Town; The Park of River Oaks; Somerset Park; Village-on-the-Lake; Stonebridge; High Hill Farms, Eagle Ridge, and The Garden Homes at High Hili Farms; Stratford Place of Stratford Villages in Bloomingdale, and Sunset Ridge in Arlington Heights.

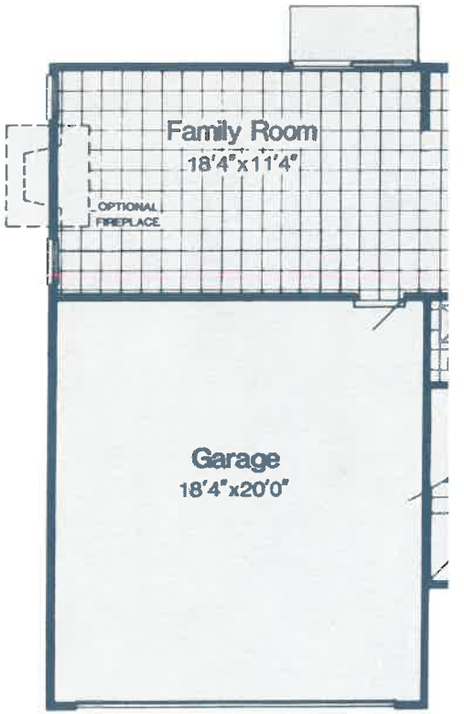

A large number of United Development personnel and consultants were involved in the planning of Suffield Place: land planners, surveyors, architects, designers, construction engineers, landscape architects and investment experts. All this was done to provide the finest living environment for you.

We invite you to inspect our plans and specifications for the homes at Suffield Place. We are confident you will discover superior design and styling, and high quality building materials. United Development is one of Chicago's largest developers. More important, United Development is a home builder that is known to deliver more value, and we are offering more living features at Suffield Place than you are likely to find at any comparable price.

United Development has built homes for Chicago families for many years. We are proud of our reputation, and because of this, you will be proud of your new home in Suffield Place.
